A COURT AUTHORIZED
THIS LEGAL NOTICE

If, between September 1, 2011 and May 7, 2015, you were sent one or more letters on district attorney letterhead about a “Bad Check Restitution Program,” a class action lawsuit may affect your rights.

Solberg et al. v. Victim Services, Inc, et al., No. 3:14-cv-05266-VC (U. S. District Court, Northern District of California), has been certified to proceed as a class action. The Plaintiffs claim that the use of collection demands on the letterhead of a California district attorney violated state and federal law. Defendants deny that they did anything wrong. The court has not decided Defendants did anything wrong.

WHO IS A CLASS MEMBER?

You may be in the UCL Class if you were sent an initial collection demand on district attorney letterhead between September 1, 2011 and May 7, 2015, and later made a payment or payments to a “Bad Check Restitution Program.” You may be in the FDCPA Class if, between December 1, 2013 and May 7, 2015, you were sent a collection demand on district attorney letterhead in connection with a check written for personal, family, or household purposes.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OPTIONS

Do Nothing. Stay in this lawsuit. Await the outcome. Give up certain rights.

If you do nothing, you keep the possibility of getting money or benefits that may come from a trial or settlement. If you stay in the lawsuit you will be bound by any Court decisions or any trial in the lawsuit. There is no money available now and no guarantee that there ever will be. If you stay in the lawsuit, you give up any rights to sue Defendants for the same or similar legal claims based on the same set of facts as those alleged in this lawsuit. Defendants are Victim Services, Inc., National Corrective Group, Inc., American Justice Solutions, Inc., Birch Grove Holdings, Inc., Mats Jonsson, and Karl Thomas Jonsson.

The Court decided that the law firms Terrell Marshall Law Group, PLLC and Law Office of Paul Arons in Washington state, Gupta Wessler PLLC in Washington D.C., and Robins Kaplan LLP in California, are qualified to represent you and all Class Members. If you do nothing and stay in the lawsuit, those lawyers will represent the interests of you and the Class. If you have questions about whether you need your own lawyer, visit the Class website at www.CheckDiversionClassAction.com or call 1-855-349-7023.

Ask to be Excluded. Opt out of this lawsuit. Get no benefits from it. Keep rights.

If you ask to be excluded and money or benefits are later awarded to the Class, you won’t share in those. But, you keep any rights to assert claims against Defendants based on the same set of facts as those alleged in this lawsuit. You can either mail your exclusion request or submit it online. If you mail your exclusion request it must be postmarked on or before XXXXX, 2019 and include your name, address, telephone number and the case name “Solberg v. Victim Services, Inc.” You may also submit an exclusion request online at www.CheckDiversionClassAction.com. You must submit your online request on or before XXXXX, 2019. For more information about this case and opting out of the lawsuit, please visit the Class website at www.CheckDiversionClassAction.com or call 1-855-349-7023.
